E IS FOR EVERYBODY

DRAW A PICTURE AND PRACTICE THE LETTER E

E

Handwriting practice lines for the letter 'E'. The page contains five sets of horizontal lines, each consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The first set begins with a large, bold letter 'E' on the top line, while the remaining four sets are empty for practice.

COUNTRIES CLOSEST TO THE EQUATOR ARE THE SUNNIEST

Have you heard of evolution?

Evolution means a change happening slowly over millions of years.

Some scientists believe evolution is why some have darker skin colours than others. They believe that over time, our ancestors (your great, great, great, great, great, great..., grandparents) who lived closer to the equator produced more melanin in their skin to protect them from the sun.

We now live in a colourful world because of the invention of trains, boats, cars and planes.
